Riding Chinese Machines

There are beasts in this city they creak and they crank and groan from first dawn when their African-tongued masters wake to guide them lax and human-handed through the late rush when they're handled down and un-animated still as we sleep, towering or bowing always heavy

We pour cement through the cities towns, through the wild onwards, outwards like fingers of eager hands stretched across the earth dug in

The lions investigate and buried marvel rumbles squeezed for progress
